Chapter 11

Case No. 20-14695 (LMI)

Jointly Administered

Hearing: May 18, 2020 at 2:30 pm ET

LIMITED OBJECTION AND RESPONSE OF NATIONAL RETAIL PROPERTIES, LP AND SHOPCORE PROPERTIES, LP TO DEBTORS' EMERGENCY MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER (I) EXTENDING TIME FOR PERFORMANCE OF
OBLIGATIONS ARISING UNDER UNEXPIRED REAL PROPERTY LEASES; (II)
ESTABLISHING TEMPORARY CASE ADMINISTRATION PROCEDURES; AND
(III) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

National Retail Properties, LP and Shopcore Properties LP (together, the “Landlords”) by and through undersigned counsels filed their objection (the “Objection”) to the Debtors’ Emergency Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Extending Time for Performance of Obligations Arising Under Unexpired Real Property Leases; (II) Establishing Temporary Case Administration Procedures; and (III) Granting Related Relief [ECF No. 92] (the “Extension Motion”)<sup>2</sup> filed by the above-referenced debtors (the “Debtors”) and request adequate protection under sections 363(e) and 361 of the Bankruptcy Code. In support of this Objection, the Landlords respectfully state as follows:

<sup>1</sup> The Debtors in these cases and the last four digits of each Debtor’s federal tax identification number are as follows: (1) Cinemex USA Real Estate Holdings, Inc. (2194); (2) Cinemex Holdings USA, Inc. (5502); and (3) CB Theater Experience LLC (0563). The address for the Debtors is 175 South West 7th Street, Suite 1108, Miami, Florida 33130.

<sup>2</sup> Capitalized terms used, but not defined, herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Extension Motion.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. The Landlords are mindful of the devastating personal and economic impact of COVID-19 on the world at large and particularly in the retail, restaurant, and theater industries, including its effect on all participants, such as tenants, landlords, and lenders. The Landlords understand the need for a deferral of certain obligations in light of the current public health emergency while the Debtors are not operating because of a government mandate. The relief requested in the Extension Motion, however, goes beyond what is allowed by the Bankruptcy Code, and must be modified, if not denied. Requiring the Landlords to bear the full brunt of financing the Debtors' use and occupancy of the theaters during the Extension Period is inequitable and inconsistent with both the spirit and provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. The Debtors purport to seek relief under section 365(d)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, yet the Extension Motion is in direct contravention of the plain language of the statute because the Debtors: (i) seek an extension beyond the 60 days permitted by the statute; and (ii) fail to set forth a feasible plan for the repayment of their obligations and, instead, appear to unilaterally seek a waiver of such obligations. Consideration of the Extension Motion should, at a minimum, be continued until after the Debtors file a supplemental financing motion and set forth their cash flow projections.

3. If the Extension Motion is granted, the Debtors should be required to, as adequate protection pursuant to sections 363(e) and 361 of the Bankruptcy Code, immediately pay to the Landlords a reasonable storage fee and any common area maintenance, real estate tax, utility, and insurance obligations due under the Leases for the month of May 2020, whether those payments are made to the Landlords or direct to third parties. Going forward, the Debtors should be required to continue making similar monthly or per diem payments for the duration of the Extension Period. If the government mandate prohibiting any theater from operating is lifted and the Debtors are able to safely resume operations at such location, then the Debtors should be required to immediately resume full and timely payment of all obligations under the applicable lease.

4. The Landlords hope to resolve some, if not all, of the issues raised herein with the Debtors consensually, but reserve their rights to argue these issues at the hearing on the Extension Motion.

BACKGROUND

5. The Landlords are the owners, affiliates, or managing agents for the owners of properties located throughout the United States where the Debtors rent non-residential real estate pursuant to written leases (each, a “Lease,” and, collectively, the “Leases”) for the locations listed on the attached Exhibit A (collectively, the “Leased Premises”). Most or all of the Leased Premises are located in shopping centers as that term is used in section 365(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code. See In re Joshua Slocum, Ltd., 922 F.2d 1081 (3d Cir. 1990).

6. On either April 25 or 26, 2020 (the “Petition Dates”), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) with this Court. To date, the Debtors continue to manage their businesses as debtors and debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

7. On May 12, 2020, the Debtors filed the Extension Motion, which seeks to suspend the Debtors’ obligations under the Leases from the Petition Date through June 30, 2020 (the “Extension Period”).<sup>3</sup> The Extension Motion states that the Debtors will have sufficient revenue to cover post-petition operating costs through supplemental financing and future revenues,<sup>4</sup> even though the Debtors are not currently operating and have not disclosed when they plan on resuming operations.

8. The Debtors did not pay rent or other amounts due under the Leases for the months of April and May 2020, nor certain real estate tax obligations that came due after the Petition Dates.

OBJECTION AND RESPONSE

I. THE DEBTORS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR TIMELY PAYMENT OF ALL POST-PETITION RENT AND ADDITIONAL AMOUNTS DUE UNDER THE LEASES UNTIL THEY ARE ASSUMED, ASSUMED AND ASSIGNED, OR REJECTED

9. Section 365(d)(3) of the Bankruptcy provides, in pertinent part:

The [debtor] shall timely perform all the obligations of the debtor...arising from and after the order for relief under any unexpired lease of nonresidential real property, until such lease is assumed or rejected, notwithstanding section 503(b)(1) of [the Bankruptcy Code]. The court may extend, for cause, the time for performance of any such obligation that arises within 60 days after the date of the order for relief, but the time for performance shall not be extended beyond such 60-day period.

11 U.S.C. § 365(d)(3) (emphasis added).

10. The Bankruptcy Code requires the Debtors' timely performance of all obligations arising under the Leases before the Leases are assumed, assumed and assigned, or rejected, including, without limitation, the full payment of rent on the first day of each month. While the Court may extend, "for cause," the time for performance of obligations arising within the first 60 days of the case, the time for performance shall not be extended beyond such 60-day period.

11. The relief sought by the Debtors in the Extension Motion is in direct contravention of the plain language of section 365(d)(3), which permits an extension for cause of the Debtors' time to perform certain obligations for up to 60 days. Nonetheless, the Debtors seek to suspend their obligations under the Leases arising from the Petition Dates through June 30, 2020, which is 66/65 days after the Petition Dates, respectively. The Bankruptcy Code does not permit the Debtors to extend the time to perform obligations that arise after 60 days from the Petition Date. Such request should be denied or modified to comply with the statute.

12. Even if section 365(d)(3) permits the Debtors to delay payment of obligations if they establish cause, it does not permit the Debtors to waive those obligations. The Extension Motion fails to set forth a feasible plan for when the performance of the Debtors' obligations under the Leases during the Extension Period will be satisfied. Stating that future financing will be sufficient to cover such costs, a statement for which evidence has not been provided to the Court, is inadequate. Therefore, the Extension Motion should be denied unless the Debtors provide an express, feasible plan for payment of the amounts that come due during the Extension Period.

13. The Debtors also expressly attempt to reserve the right to seek further extensions of the time to satisfy their post-petition obligations under the leases, while providing no authority for which provisions of the Bankruptcy Code would permit further extensions. There is no such authority.

14. Further, the Debtors state in the Extension Motion that they plan to negotiate the terms of the leases with their landlords and that such amounts could be waived during that process. The Debtors are counting their chickens before they hatch. Whether or not one or more of the Debtors' landlords will agree to such waiver remains to be seen and the Landlords have not agreed to such waiver. The Extension Motion should not be granted on the basis that the Debtors may be able to hypothetically negotiate rent concessions from their landlords in the future because, if they fail to do so, the Landlords will be the ones left bearing the burden of an administratively insolvent estate after having provided, at a minimum, involuntary secure storage for the Debtors' assets during the Extension Period.

15. While the Debtors may be unable to pay monthly rent in full while they are prohibited from operating, the Debtors' use of the Leased Premises should not be involuntarily financed by the Landlords. The Bankruptcy Code and equitable considerations require the Debtors to make certain minimum payments to the Landlords during the Extension Period, as set forth below.

16. Furthermore, if the Debtors choose not to operate their theaters after the government's restrictions on such operation have been lifted and they can do so safely, then the Debtors should be required to timely pay rent and additional rent in full pursuant to section 365(d)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Landlords do not have the option of delaying payments to their own lenders because the Debtors chose not to operate.

II. THE LANDLORDS ARE ENTITLED TO ADEQUATE PROTECTION FOR THE DEBTORS' POST-PETITION USE OF THE LANDLORDS' PROPERTY

17. The Bankruptcy Code and equitable considerations require the Debtors to make certain minimum payments and provide adequate protection to the Landlords during the Extension Period while the Debtors cannot operate due to government mandate.

18. Section 363(e) of the Bankruptcy Code guarantees adequate protection to any party with an interest in property used by a debtor during the debtor's bankruptcy proceedings who makes a request for adequate protection:

Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, at any time, on request of an entity that has an interest in property used, sold or leased, or proposed to be used, sold, or leased, by the trustee, the court, with or without a hearing, shall prohibit or condition such use sale, or lease as is necessary to provide adequate protection of such interest.

11 U.S.C. § 363(e).

19. Section 363(e) is straightforward and non-discretionary. If a creditor with an "interest" in property used by the Debtors makes a request for adequate protection, then the court "shall" prohibit or condition the use of such property on the provision of adequate protection. 11 U.S.C. § 363(e); see In re Worldcom, 304 B.R. 611; see also In re Metromedia Fiber Network, Inc., 290 B.R. 487, 491 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003) ("Section 363(e) is not permissive or discretionary..."). The U.S. Supreme Court has held that the term "interest" "is the most general term that can be employed to denote a right, claim, title, or legal share in something." Russello v. U.S., 464 U.S. 16, 21 (1983).

20. A landlord undeniably holds an interest in the property that it owns and leases to a debtor, as well as an interest in the lease itself, the rents due under that lease, and the proceeds of the lease. See In re Ames Department Stores, Inc., 136 B.R. 357, 359 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1992) (“Section 363(e) of the Bankruptcy Code reserves for bankruptcy courts the discretion to condition the time, place and manner of Store Closing Sales, thereby providing adequate safeguards to protect shopping center landlords and their other tenants, while allowing the Trustee to fulfill its fiduciary obligations”). Thus, with an interest in property being used by the Debtors, and the request made herein, the Landlords are entitled to receive adequate protection.

A. *The Extension Motion Should Be Denied Or Its Consideration Should Be Continued Until The Debtors Prove That They Can Provide Adequate Protection To The Landlords

21. The Debtors cannot currently show they can provide adequate protection. The Debtors have not filed supplemental financing and are not operating their theaters. The Landlords do not know when the Debtors plan to reopen, or their projected cash flow when they resume operations. Additionally, the Landlords do not know the amount or the terms of the potential supplemental financing, and whether such financing will be sufficient to cover all post-petition obligations of the Debtors, including any deferred rent.

22. Under these facts, the Debtors have not shown that they can provide the Landlords with adequate protection. The Landlords are certainly sensitive to the difficult operational issues faced by the Debtors, but the risk of administratively insolvency resting most heavily on the Landlords is far too great. Denying the Extension Motion or continuing its consideration until the Debtors secure supplemental financing will not prejudice the Debtors, and would provide the Landlords and this Court a clearer picture as to whether the Debtors can provide adequate protection to the Landlords as required by the Bankruptcy Code.

B. *Alternatively, The Landlords Request That The Debtors Be Required To Provide Adequate Protection During The Extension Period

23. The plain language of section 361 of the Bankruptcy Code dictates that adequate protection may take one of three forms: a debtor may (i) tender an upfront cash payment or periodic cash payments, (ii) grant replacement liens, or (iii) grant other related relief (other than an administrative claim under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code) amounting to the indubitable equivalent of the protected party's interest in the property. Section 361(3) is clear that adequate protection may not take the form of a deferred administrative claim.

24. If the Court is inclined to grant the Extension Motion, then the Landlords are entitled to adequate protection pursuant to sections 363(e) and 361 of the Bankruptcy Code during the Extension Period and, as adequate protection, the Debtors are required to provide the Landlords more than a deferred administrative claim. Under section 361 of the Bankruptcy Code, only a contemporaneous transfer of value satisfies the requirements of adequate protection

25. The Debtors' property is being stored at the Leased Premises during the Extension Period. The Landlords are currently incurring costs to keep the Leased Premises free of fire, flood, theft, and various other risks and hazards. As adequate protection for the Debtors' use of the Leased Premises, the Landlords are entitled to immediate payment of a reasonable rate for storage for the month of May, in addition to the Debtors' payment of common area maintenance costs, real estate taxes, utilities, and insurance obligations for the months of May and June, whether the Debtors are obligated to pay such amounts to the Landlords or directly to third parties. Going forward, the Landlords are entitled to the same periodic payments, for the duration of the Extension Period. To the extent that the Debtors resume operations at any of the Leased Premises, the Debtors should be required to immediately resume payment in full of the amounts due under the lease for rent and additional rent.

26. Given the risk of administrative insolvency and unique position the Landlords have been put in by the Debtors, the Landlords also request that, in addition to adequate protection payments, that there should be an appropriate escrow established with such proceeds to fund any deferred or unpaid post-petition lease obligations.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

27. The Landlords reserve the right to amend and/or supplement this Objection and to raise any additional objections to the Extension Motion at the hearing. The Landlords also reserve all rights regarding the allowance of their administrative expense claims arising during the Extension Period.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Landlords request that the Court enter an order: (i) denying the Extension Motion or continuing its consideration until the Debtors obtain supplemental financing and file a business plan; or, in the alternative, (ii) (a) modifying the relief requested so that the Extension Period ends on June 24, as is required the Bankruptcy Code, (b) for the month of May 2020, requiring the Debtors to pay the Landlords a reasonable storage rate and to comply with any obligations to timely pay common area maintenance costs, real estate taxes, utilities, and insurance for the months of May and June, as adequate protection required by sections 363(e) and 361 of the Bankruptcy Code for the Debtors' post-petition use and occupancy of the Leased Premises, (c) on a go-forward basis for the duration of the Extension Period, requiring the Debtors to make periodic payments to the Landlords for a reasonable storage rate, and to comply with any obligations to pay common area maintenance costs, real estate taxes, utilities, and insurance, as adequate protection required by sections 363(e) and 361 of the Bankruptcy Code for the Debtors' post-petition use and occupancy of the Leased Premises, (d) requiring the Debtors to resume paying all rent and additional rent as required under a lease if the applicable theater reopens and resumes operations,

(e) requiring the Debtors to escrow the post-petition lease obligations for the benefit of the Landlords, and (f) granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
