UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

BRYNEE BAYLOR,

Defendant.

Crim. No. 16-cr-180 (RC)

ORDER

For the reasons stated in the Mem. Op. issued on October 8, 2020, it is hereby

ORDERED that pursuant to the authority vested in this Court to reduce a previously imposed term of imprisonment under 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1), defendant Brynee Baylor's Third Emergency Motion for Compassionate Release (ECF No. 190) is GRANTED; and it is further

ORDERED that Ms. Baylor's current sentence of 25 months imprisonment (see Judgment, Sept. 18, 2019, ECF No. 154) is reduced to TIME SERVED; it is further ORDERED that, within 72 hours of release from custody, Ms. Baylor shall report to the Probation Office of the District of Columbia to commence the three-year term of supervised release that was imposed as part of the original judgment; it is further ORDERED that the conditions of supervised release that this Court imposed in the original judgment will be MODIFIED, pursuant to this Court's authority under 18 U.S.C. §§ 3582(c)(1)(A) and 3583(e)(2), to provide that Ms. Baylor is required to serve the first 90 days of her three-year term of supervised release under home detention, with location monitoring technology at the discretion of the Probation Office. The cost of location monitoring technology, if utilized, is waived. During this period of home detention, Ms. Baylor shall remain at her
